THE GIN BAR
HOLBORN
DINING ROOM

*Holborn Dining Room Limited Edition Gin
by Tarquin's*

This limited edition gin was created in proud collaboration with Southwestern Distillery, Cornwall's first distillery for over 100 years founded by Master Distiller, Tarquin Leadbetter, in 2012.

We wanted to make a solid, classic and juniper forward London Dry Gin, incorporating Cornwall's finest rock samphire, hand foraged from the clifftops of the Cornish coast by some of the Holborn Dining Room team.

An age-old traditional distilling technique is used; heating the copper pot stills with a direct naked flame and sealing the top of the stills with bread dough. Only the purest and the most flavoursome heart of the distillation makes it into this handcrafted Cornish gin.

Every bottle is individually filled, labelled, waxed, stamped, given batch tasting notes and signed - all by hand.

The tasting profile resulted in a great depth of flavour with vibrant citrus notes, fresh piney structure with a spicy finish. The rock samphire is well integrated, giving this gin an incredible balance on the palate. The fresh juniper comes through boldly, sustained by a subtle mineral note that enhances all the flavours.

Rosewood London is the only place to have access to this super premium spirit, unless you fancy a trip to Cornwall, where the generous team at the Southwestern distillery will happily assist you with a bottle (or more). Should you be a fan, please ask our team at The Gin Bar to assist you in purchasing a bottle for £54.

We recommend this gin best served as a Martini, representing a true and unique taste of the coastal notes or as a G&T paired with London Essence tonic water or with Fentimans herbal tonic, for the herbeaceous lover.
