HOLBORN DINING ROOM

Wine List

A list built over many seasons. From the chalky cliffs of southern England and the great houses of Champagne, through Burgundy, Bordeaux and the Rhône, to the high vineyards of the Andes and the old vines of the Cape.

Our sommeliers are at your service.

Vintages may change to availability. All prices are inclusive of VAT. A discretionary 15% service charge will be added to your bill.

A note from the cellar

Our list is built around the classics done well - the great houses of Champagne, the patient growers of Burgundy and the Rhône, the noble estates of Bordeaux - alongside the quieter, more curious bottles we have come to love. English sparklers grown on chalk that runs unbroken to the cliffs of Champagne, old-vine Chenin from the Swartland, salty whites from the Atlantic coast, and the occasional bottle from places one rarely meets on a wine list at all.

Vintages are listed as held; should the cellar have moved on between the printing of this list and your visit, your sommelier will guide you to the closest neighbour. The pages are arranged by colour and by country; a table of contents follows on the next page.

Should anything catch your eye, do ask. Many of these wines have stories worth the telling, and our team are at your service to find the bottle that suits the table, the food, and the evening. We are happy to decant any wine upon request, and many bottles are available in larger formats with sufficient notice.

with our compliments,

THE SOMMELIER TEAM

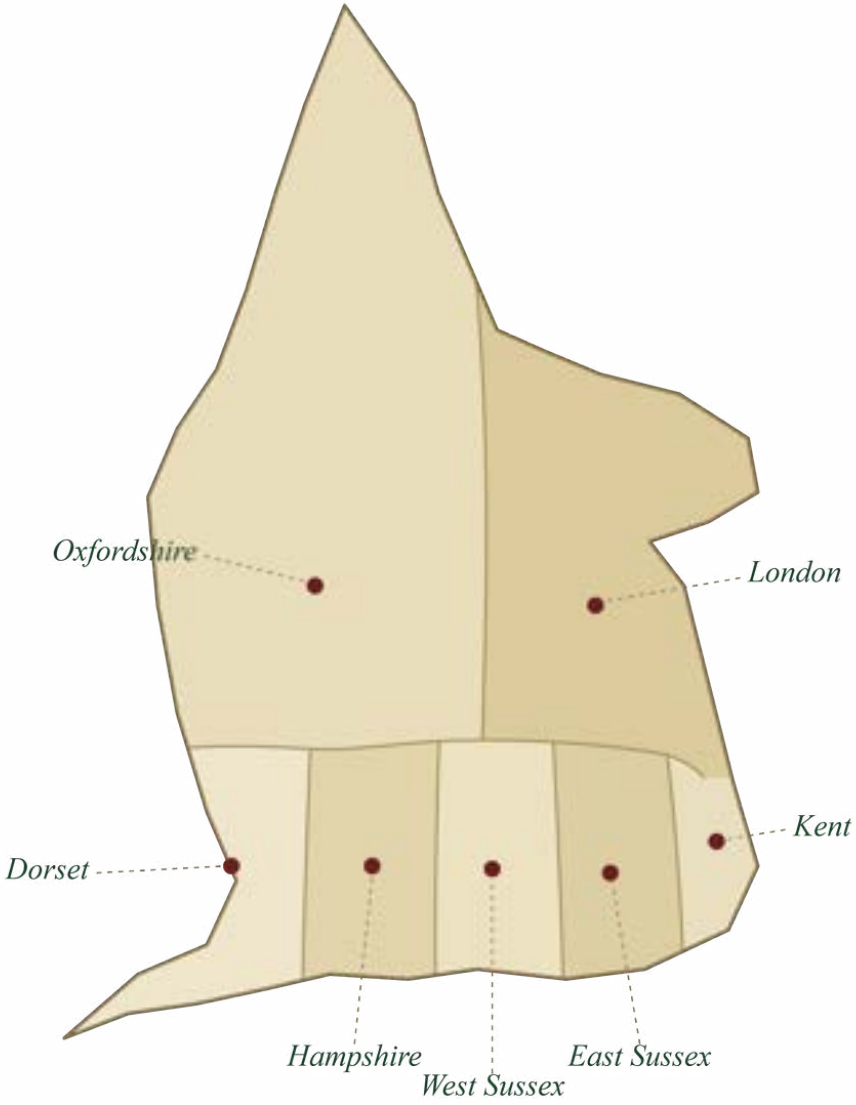
THE WINE-GROWING COUNTIES



The English wine renaissance sits on a foundation of chalk - the same band that runs beneath the cliffs of Dover and continues, unbroken, under the sea to the slopes of Champagne. The selections that follow are drawn from the counties marked above.
